

Guidelines for submitting applications to Adveniat
– ANNEX STUDIES OF MEMBERS OF A CONGREGATION –

Complementary information to the guidelines for submitting applications to Adveniat

- Please also use the guidelines for submitting applications to Adveniat and the attached excel sheet.
- Adveniat can only accept complete applications.
- The aids are granted at an institutional level and not at a personal level. The applicant and person responsible is the provincial or regional superior of the country.
- The recommendation is made by the bursar.
- Studies in Latin America or Germany have priority over studies in other countries.
- Find out if the institution where the studies are carried out grants scholarships. In that case you first have to submit an application to this institution and inform us of the results.

Complementary elements to your application for the studies of members of a congregation:

a) Personal information about each student

	Name and surname	Date of birth	Date of profession	Original convent	Previous training
1
2
...	...

b) Information about the studies of each student

Name and surname	Subject and title to be obtained	Institution and place of studies	Beginning and duration of the studies	Year of study in which the student is	Full or part time studies?	Future task for which the studies are needed
1
2
...	...

Version of this form: November 2022